

welcome

April 4, 1996

Greetings Everyone!

On behalf of the MAASU Executive Coordinating Committee, I am excited to welcome you to the Sixth Annual Midwest Asian American Students Union Spring Conference hosted by Indiana University – Bloomington.

This year we are proud to carry on the tradition started last year of a FOUR day conference. The weekend promises great entertainment, informative and thought provoking workshops and plenaries, as well as the opportunity to meet and interact with students from all over the Midwest and the rest of the country.

This year the theme of the conference is "We came together on the road to change" and that is exactly what we, as an Asian American community, are doing. More than ever, Asian Americans are organizing and taking an active role for "change" in every respect. Whether it is protesting for Asian American Studies, or organizing voter registration drives to make our political power felt, Asian Americans are answering the call for action.

Our hope is that the conference will provide each individual with insight into issues that the Asian American community faces, as well as the motivation to be an active participant in our community.

Sincerely,

Nicole Lee
